Vanderburgh House welcomes residents committed to living a life of sobriety. We carefully screen applicants to ensure a good fit in our homes. Please give all information to the best of your ability; we cannot process incomplete applications. False information given on this application is grounds for rejection of the application or termination of your residency. Residents must sign a Resident Agreement and agree to follow all House Rules. A non-refundable fee and first week's rent is due when you move-in.
